The participants of the expedition arrived at the Mineralnye Vody international airport on the 8 and on the 9th of July. They were transferred to the Adyr -Su valley in Elbrus region of Kabardino-Balkariya by buses and were accommodated in tents in mountaineering camp “Ullu-tau”.

All participants of the expedition successfully make the acclimatization trips and training ascent to Mestia-tau peak, 4200 m, in the Main Caucasus Range.

In “Ullu-tau” camp youth mountaineers had a good association with the young climbers from Russia and Ukraine.

Then the participants of expedition moved to the slopes of Mt. Elbrus and on the 14 of July settled a high tents camp at 4200m.

On the 16th of July Bailer Tobias ( Germany ), Gross Bernchard ( Italy ) and Kazachok Peter ( Ukraine ) ascended onto the Western peak of Mt. Elbrus, 5642 m.

The rest of the participants returned to the high camp seeing that the weather had begun to deteriorate and with intention to repeat the attempt the next day. However, the severe snow storm broke at night from 16th to 17th of July. The participants had to evacuate the tent camp and descend down.

All participants flew at home from Mineralnye Vody airport the 19th of July. The successful realization of the expedition “ Elbrus – 2005 “ has allowed to accumulate valuable experience of international youth ascents, and to development the friendly contacts of young mountaineers from different countries of the World.
