

Note: This representation of UIAA 161 does not contain the full details of the test methods and requirements in these standards; it gives only a simplified pictorial presentation.

For full details, UIAA 161: 2018 should be consulted. © UIAA

Determination of the critical fall height

The lowest drop height producing a Head Injury Criterion (HIC) value of 400 determines the critical fall height.

Marking: critical fall height